Name the Newsletter

Thanks to everyone who submitted an entry for the Name the Newsletter Contest. It was a tough decision, but a winner was eventually chosen. The new name embodies both our Museum, and our founder.

Going forward, our newsletter will be called the “The Museum Page”.

What’s going on at the Museum?

On Tuesday, May 8th, Rick wells from KOTV Channel 6, came to the Museum and interviewed Mike Baldrige about his lunchbox collection. The interview ran that evening on the 5:00 news. In case you missed the story when it originally aired, below is a link.

If you haven’t yet seen the “Apron Strings and Lunchboxes” exhibit in person, please try and find the time to stop by.....it’s guaranteed to bring back some fond memories.

The exhibit will be on display in the west gallery thru June 2nd.

This exhibit is a big step forward for our Museum, so we’re looking for Corporate Sponsors and Donors to help defray the costs of bringing this world renowned artist’s work to Sand Springs.

Corporate Sponsorships are available from $500-$5000. If you or someone you know are interested in becoming a donor or sponsor, or for additional information, please contact; ssmuseumss2@gmail.com.

Anderson School Information Needed

Marjorie Ford recently spent some time in the museum Genealogy Library, looking for information about Anderson School, which is located off of 177th West Avenue and Hwy. 412 (Keystone Expressway) in Sand Springs.

A celebration is being planned to honor the beginning of the school, which originally held classes in a church building, in approximately 1896-1897.

If you have any information and/or photographs concerning the early days of Anderson School, please contact Marjorie at; marjorieford67@gmail.com

Or, contact the Sand Springs museum at; ssmuseumss2@gmail.com.

Lady Liberty

In 1886, the people of France presented the Statue of Liberty as a gift to the people of the United States. She has since come to be recognized as a symbol of freedom and hope for millions of people.

In mid-June, the Sand Springs Museum will host a stunning exhibit of lithographs showing the Statue of Liberty and Lady Liberty, from a folk art perspective.

This highly anticipated exhibit is on loan from the American Folk Art Museum in New York City.

The exhibit will open on Tuesday, June 19th, and will run thru August 18th.
