NOW ON DISPLAY

AT THE SAND SPRINGS

CULTURAL AND HISTORICAL MUSEUM

Please join us on March 16 at 4:00 p.m. to hear Bernie talk about the wonderful photographs taken in India and the amazing people that are the focus of this exhibit.

Refreshments will be served.

Born and raised in Cleveland, Ohio, from the age of twelve, Bernie studied tuba and photography. After high school he attended and graduated from the Julliard School of Music in New York.

Bernie has played with the New York Philharmonic, American Symphony Orchestra, Cleveland Orchestra Pops, Cleveland Orchestra, Kansas City Philharmonic, Tulsa Philharmonic, Tulsa Symphony and Signature symphony.

During all the years of music, he was an avid photographer traveling all over the world with interests in vanishing cultures. His photography has been seen in travel brochures, travel blogs, and other print material.
